

Catherine L. Meehan | Of Counsel

PHONE (724) 749-3177
EMAIL catherine.meehan@steptoe-johnson.com
LICENSURE PA
EDUCATION J.D. Duquesne University

Catherine Meehan focuses her practice in the areas of mineral title and energy law. She has experience in the preparation and review of all documents relating to mineral title ownership including deeds, leases, and easements.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

Assisted in management of title projects, performed due diligence, undertook curative work, and assisted in the preparation of closings in multi-million dollar energy transactions to assist clients in mineral development efforts

Experienced in preparing and reviewing deeds, leases, easements and related documents in a supervisory capacity

Conducted oil, gas, coal and mineral title examinations and abstracts

Assisted clients with the performance and preparation of oil, gas, coal, and mineral title opinions

WORK EXPERIENCE

2013 Steptoe & Johnson PLLC
2011-2013 Abstractor, Steptoe & Johnson
2010 Vuono & Gray, LLC
2009-2010 Equity Protection Legal Clinic
2009 Law Clerk, Eckert Seamans Cherin & Mellott
2008 DiPaolo & Russo

RECENT PUBLICATIONS / SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

“Basics of Title Abstracting in Ohio and How an Attorney Uses an Abstract to Prepare a Title Opinion,” Client Requested Training Event, Ohio, March 2016

"How to Properly Use Client- Provided Information in Title Opinions," Internal Training Seminar, Houston TX, October 2015

"Production Information and HBP Status: West Virginia and Ohio," Client Requested Training Event, Denver CO, September 2015

"Declaration of Unitization Requirements in West Virginia and Ohio," Client Requested Training Event, Denver CO, September 2015

"Affidavits of Heirship: Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia," 2014 CONSOL Appreciation Event, October 9, 2014

"Ethics and the Landman: Fraud, Misrepresentation and Resulting Claims Relating to Leasing," 2014 CONSOL Land School, Canonsburg, PA, September 16, 2014

Contributing Author, Conservatorship Handbook, "How to Use Conservatorship to Address Blighted and Abandoned Property for Philadelphia's Community Leaders," Housing Alliance of Pennsylvania, Spring 2013

MEMBERSHIPS AND AWARDS

PROFESSIONAL

Supervising Attorney/Adjunct Professor, Duquesne University School of Law, Urban Development Clinic, 2012-2013

American Bar Association, Outstanding Student in State and Local Government, 2011

Pennsylvania Bar Association

Washington County Bar Association

Outstanding Performance in Land Use Award, Duquesne University

INDUSTRY/CIVIC

Greater Appalachian Basin Association of Lease and Title Analysts (GABALTA)

Women in Energy (WEN)

Young Professional Women in Energy

Operation Backpack